

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Seth Stutman, Marketing Director
(413) 739-4715

sstutman@springfieldjcc.org

Springfield Jewish Community Center Announces Winter/Spring Adult Class Offerings

SPRINGFIELD, MA (January 2022) – Life Lessons: The William and Margery Sadowsky Center for Adult Learning at the Springfield Jewish Community Center announces their Winter/Spring line-up of Adult programs. There's a wide variety of programming both in-person and virtual for adults of all ages. For a full list of offerings and pricing information, visit SpringfieldJCC.org.

“From wine tastings at the JCC to trips within the U.S. and abroad, we have offerings that span the globe – and some that you can enjoy from the comfort of your own home.” said Bev Nadler, Director of Adult Life. Between our in-person and online offerings, our goal is to provide something for everyone to suit all comfort levels.”

Highlights include:

Passover Wine Tasting and Sale

Formal Tasting: Monday, March 14, 5:30 - 7:30 PM

Informal Lobby Tastings: Tuesday, March 15 and Wednesday, March 16, 3:30 - 5:30 PM

In-person at the J

Sample 100+ different wines and choose from the area's best selection of Kosher for Passover wines. This program is free and open to the public. Order forms will be available at SpringfieldJCC.org.

New Mexico: Treasures and Traditions

Thursday, March 31 - Wednesday, April 6 | In-person travel program

Enjoy seven days in New Mexico and view the world in a different light. Trip includes stops in Sante Fe, Albuquerque, and Las Vegas, NM.

The Legacy of Slavery

Tuesdays, February 15 - March 15, 4:30 - 6:00 PM | In-person at the J

Explore both the national and local legacies of slavery, including school segregation, housing segregation, and employment discrimination with Instructor Tim Oppenheimer.

Learn to Play Ukulele

Thursdays, February 17 - March 24, 2:00 - 3:00 PM | In-person at the J

In collaboration with the Community Music School's Creative Aging Program.

Learn how to play melodies, chords, and even whole songs as you develop the necessary skills to master this accessible and charming instrument.

###

The mission of the Springfield Jewish Community Center is to enrich community and nurture wellness through physical, intellectual, social and cultural programs and services. The organization is guided by Jewish values, welcoming and respecting people of all abilities, ages, backgrounds, identities, and faiths.